THE PLACES SENTENCED.

Justice BARRETT passed sentence this on the Flack conspirators. FLACK was fined $500 and sento two months' imprison-On JOSEPH MEEES was imposed a similar fine and one month's impris nument. WILL FLACK fared the worst, his sentence being four months' imprisnment and a fine of $500.

To him Justice BARRETT said

scathing words:
"You betrayed the mother that bore you. You were to protect her in the proings. But, instead, you left her in the position that if your father pleased, when he had obtained this decree and had gone across the line into some other State, he could cast her off without one penny, and she would have had nothing to appeal to in the law. You were faithless to your mother.'

Ten of the convicting jury sent a petition to the Court asking that Sheriff FLACE be let off with a fine, but it was not regarded.
